

Geography Staff and Student in Germany for the 2017 EagerLearn Summer School

Dr. Parita Shah and Ms Rebecca Oloo (MA student) of the Department of Geography and Environmental Studies are among staff and students participating in this years' Eagerlearn Summer School (March+ 2017) that is taking place at Humboldt University, Germany. Other participants are from Karatina University (Kenya), Dar es Salaam University (Tanzania) and the organizers Humboldt University. The Faculty staff from Kenya and Tanzania was in Germany for a week while the students will stay for a semester. We wish all the students the best in their exchange programme.

